Finalists Selected For Grants

Twelve seniors at Torrance High School have been named semifinalists in the California State Scholarship program. Dr. Carl R. Ahee, principal, announced today.

On Honor Roll

Harvey Faurholt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arne Faurholt, 21140 Dallon Ave., was one of 20 students at Gonzaga University Law School, Spokane, Wash., named to the school's honor roll for the first semester of 1965-66.

Selected were James E. Crockett, Robert A. Webb, Thomas H. Alessio, Hildeo D. Masaki, Marilyn K. Blankenship, Robert S. Dehn, Kristine K. Erickson, Gregory D. Rice, Lee D. Gordon, Roger P. McCool, Julia T. Takayama, and Ky S. Azelein.

CHAMBER MEETING

The Harbor District Chambers of Commerce will meet tomorrow at the home of Ove Hoyer, Alameda and Del Amo Boulevards. The meeting will begin at 7.30 p.m.

The students were selected on the basis of scores in the Scholastic Aptitude Test administered by the College Entrance Examination Board.

Final award winners will be announced April 7, Dr. Ahee said.

Seaman Rct. Raymond D. Rolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Rolan of 1636 W. 209th St., is undergoing seven weeks of basic training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego.

Spartans Speak

By Tim Chang

This Monday the candy sale will end. On behalf of the California Scholarship Federation, the National Forensic League, German Club, Girls' League and many other clubs, buy all the chocolate bars you can eat. And get one for your mother, too.

Thank goodness the flu epidemic is over, at long last. Hundreds of Spartans will testify that it is no vacation to miss school when one has a cough, chills, a high fever, or a combination of all three. Besides that, there is a heavy backlog of homework when the unfortunate victim gets well. Certainly influenza should be outlawed.

Those of you who believe that mathematicians mainly sit around and get excited about numbers are correct. Playing with numbers can actually be quite entertaining, as many math students at South will tell you. This interest was reflected today when several people took the annual Actuaries' Test, given by the Mathematical Association of America and co-sponsored by the Society of Actuaries.

The test requires only a thorough knowledge up to Algebra II, but the problems are unique, and challenge the student's skill and ingenuity. Mr. Conway, Math Club sponsor, said confidently of the

Rose Craig Joins Hansen Realty Firm

The association of Mrs. Rose Craig, Torrance area realtor since 1949, with Realtor Fred Hansen in offices at 2222 Torrance Blvd., was announced here this week by Hansen.

Mrs. Craig, who operated her own office here for many years, is a former president of the women's division of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors and served as vice chairman of the city's Parks and Recreation Commission.

Chess Club constitution, removal from office is by assassination only.
